

North East Medical Sociology Group Seminar

Critical realism, Archer and 'internal conversations': The role of structured agency in the sociology of health inequalities

Keynote speaker:
Professor Graham Scambler, University College, London

Wed 2nd October 2013, 12pm-5pm
Bamburgh Suite, King's Building, Newcastle University

The North East Medical Sociology Group is pleased to announce details of the next half day seminar to be held on the afternoon of Wednesday 2nd October 2013 at Newcastle University. There will be a keynote presentation by Professor Graham Scambler, Professor of Medical Sociology at University College, London. There will additionally be two further presentations from local speakers, Dr Tiago Moreira and Dr Robbie Duschinsky/Dr Sue Lampitt, together with a participatory session exploring the use of social media and academic websites as means of disseminating work ideas and building academic profiles. The full programme is set out overleaf. Speaker abstracts and biographies are also provided.

The North East Medical Sociology group aims to provide a forum to foster collaborative working, mentoring, discussion, and to enhance the profile of medical sociology in the Region. Our events offer a lively and friendly forum, through which we encourage debate, discussion and networking.

Who should attend?

The conference is aimed at academics, researchers, postgraduate students and others with an interest in the critical sociology of health.
