Call for Proposals

Our newest, peer reviewed book aims to be a flagship for new and innovative theories and approaches to 'the social' in the 21st century. We are interested in focused proposals for monographs and edited collections featuring contemporary work that is theoretically and methodologically innovative, has local or global reach, and engages or reengages with classic debates in sociology bringing new perspectives to important and relevant topics.

All titles are available through the Routledge website and on Amazon. We are looking for more titles and invite proposals to be a part of the series.

The series is inspired by the vibrant wealth of BSA events and presentations. It aims to enable the fruits of these events to reach a wider audience and offers a new publishing outlet for sociologists at all career and publishing stages, from the well-established to emerging sociologists, BSA or non-BSA members, from all parts of the world.

Series Editors

Eileen Green	Professor Emerita, Teesside University
John Horne	Waseda University, Japan
Caroline Oliver	Senior Lecturer, University of Roehampton
Louise Ryan	Professor of Sociology, University of Sheffield, Vice Chair of the BSA

Have an idea for a book?

The Series Editors welcome suggestions for topics and book proposals at any time. For queries, a blank proposal form or to submit a proposal, contact Alison Danforth, BSA Publications & Membership Manager alison.danforth@britsoc.org.uk

We accept proposals for monographs and edited collections with a focused theme. Proposals will be peer reviewed. Finished texts are expected to be approximately 70,000-80,000 words.
