

BSA Citizenship Study Group report 2016-2017

By: Dr Mastoureh Fathi (Bournemouth University) Co-convenor
Dr Anisa Mustafa (Nottingham University) Co-convenor

Introduction:

BSA Citizenship study group have gone through some changes in the last year. Dr Kristoffer Halvorsrud and Dr James Tangen have left their role as co-convenors. Their contribution to the group has been tremendous. As a smaller organising group, we have tried to cope with these changes as well as to stay active in informing and organising events.

We have advertised various posts organised by other institutions and study groups that were related to citizenship. Please find the details below. Duplicates have been deleted.

Future plans

As acting co-convenors, we will be advertising for a new co-convenor in the next academic year. However, during this academic year, we will hold a seminar series on citizenship, belonging in post Brexit and post-Trump era. We are in the process of organising these events and the details will be advertised in due course.

We look forward to the next year and the organisation of a series of new events as part of the citizenship study group.
