

BRITISH SOCIOLOGICAL ASSOCIATION

East Midlands Medical Sociology Group Event (funded by the Health Foundation)

11.30-15.00 21st June 2018

Venue; Meeting Room 8, Jubilee Conference Centre, Jubilee Campus,
Triumph Road, Nottingham. NG7 2TU.

Title: 'Using Science and Technology Studies Approaches in Health Improvement Research'

Time	Topic
11.30	Registration, refreshments & networking opportunity
12.00	Welcome
12.15	Dr. Catherine Will – Reader in the Sociology of Science and Technology  'Thinking practice with care. An exploration of the risks and rewards of practice based approaches to the 'problem' of antibiotics.'
13.15	Buffet Lunch
14.00	Aleksandra Stelmach – University of Nottingham  'Making sense of new reproductive risks: metaphors and narratives of foetal programming in interviews with scientists'.
14.30	Charlotte Overton – Nottingham University Business School  'Of distribution and drift: the role of everyday technologies in the implementation of care bundles'
15.00	Closing remarks