

BSA New Materialisms study group

Inaugural Day Conference

Monday 10 June 2019

BSA London Meeting Room, Imperial Wharf, Fulham.

12.00 – 12.30	Arrival and coffee; bring your own lunch.
12.30 – 12.40	Welcome and Introduction to the New Materialism group and event
12.40 – 13.55	Paper session 1 Charismatic suffering – from recognizing entanglements to politicizing exclusions. Eva Giraud, Keele University Tales of the Unexpected? A ‘post’ exploration of journeys from ‘the worst school in Britain’ to university and beyond. Dee A Rogers, University of Bristol Towards a posthumanist institutional ethnography. Carol Taylor, University of Bath and Nikki Fairchild, University of Chichester
13.55 – 14.05	Comfort break
14.05 – 14.50	Paper session 2 Fearing fat: exploring the relationship between orthorexia nervosa and anorexia nervosa through materialities, metaphors and meanings of ‘fat’. Emma Louise Pudge, UCL Attending to processes of social inclusion/exclusion around artmaking in early-years settings, using a 360-degree camera. Petra Vackova, Open University The troubles of staying with the ‘wonder’ - full data in new materialism. Shiva Zarabadi, UCL
14.50 – 15.10	Tea break
15.10 – 16.30	Paper session 3 Getting Unreal: Professional wrestling practises and the materialization of unreality. Greg Hollin, University of Leeds The Male Montessorian: how gender matters in localised contexts. Sid Mohandas & Jayne Osgood, Middlesex University New materialisms, old theories of gender? Marjo Kolehmainen, University of Kent/Tampere University The matter of research: reflecting on using new materialism to research wellbeing and climate change. Chris Yuill, Robert Gordon University
16.30 – 17.00	Next steps for the NM group.
17.00	End