

Rethinking Consumption Schedule

- 9.30-10.00 Arrival, Registration, Coffee and Tea available
- 10.00-10.10 Welcome and outline of the new group and plans
- 10:10-11.00 Keynote: Prof Lydia Martens
- 11:00-12:30 Panel A: Consumption and Personal Life
- Consequences of lifelong consumption: Decluttering in the transition to retirement (Susan Venn and Kate Burningham, University of Surrey)
- Gender, food and family – some critical reflections (Stefan Wahlen, University of Giessen and Benedetta Cappellini, Durham University)
- Intensive grandparenting? Consumption and relationships around the sacred child (Vicki Harman, University of Surrey, Benedetta Cappellini, University of Durham and Michelle Webster, Royal Holloway, University of London).
- Lost and Found: Exploring the transformative potential of material loss (Helen Holmes, University of Manchester)
- 12.30-13:15 Lunch
- 13.15-14:45 Panel B Consumption and Sustainability
- Energy poverty and the energy market: a relational approach (Pepa Ambrosio Albala and Lucie Middlemiss, University of Leeds)
- Social relations and sustainable consumption (Lucie Middlemiss and Tom Hargreaves, University of Leeds)
- Emerging sustainability concerns and policy implications of urban household consumption (Olamide Shittu, Swinburne University of Technology)
- Journeys towards sustainable consumption: A study of leading green living blogs (Dimitrinka Atanasova, Lancaster University)
- 14:45-15:15 Coffee, Tea and Biscuits
- 15:15-16:45 Panel C Cultures and Communities of Consumption
- ‘It’s just people that post about clothes online’ - Consumption, class and identity within online menswear communities (Nathaniel Weiner, University of the Arts London)
- Hooks and loops: Thinking metaphorically about cultural intermediaries and the integration of cultural production and consumption (Jennifer Smith Maguire, Sheffield Hallam University)
- ‘We Could Hang’: Negotiating (Un)cool in Music Consumption Research (Giuseppe Zevolli, King’s College London)
- Videogaming as craft consumption (Tom Brock, Manchester Metropolitan University)

16:45-17:35     Keynote: Prof Gerda Reith
17:35-17:45     Closing comments & future plans for the group
17:45            Close
18:00            Informal social drinks and food.