

Emerging Challenges in Digital Ageing

21st June 2021, 10:00- 15:00

BSA Early Career Research Forum – Event Programme
University of York

Emerging Challenges in Digital Ageing is an interactive event aimed at facilitating the dialogue, knowledge exchange, and the proliferation of ideas between early career and established researchers in the field.

Captioned video talks will be available the week before the event and the day event will be conducted online. Links provided to registered participants.

Programme

10:00 - 10:15	Welcome – Dr. Cynthia Meersohn Schmidt (University of York)
10:15 - 11:00	Open discussion of the previously viewed pre-recorded presentation from speakers
11:00 - 11:45	Break
11:45 - 12:30	Workshops –in randomly assigned break out rooms using Zoom
12:30 - 12:45	Open discussion
12:45 - 13:30	Lunch
13:30 – 14:30	Main topics from workshop discussion – break out rooms using Zoom
14:30 – 15:00	Summary and close

Speakers pre-recorded presentations available for discussion at the event and available to view from Thursday 17 June.

- Prof. Tiago Moreira (Durham University): Frailing Digital Technologies.
- Prof. Ellen Annandale (University of York): Building Scholarship Capital in Health Research.
- Dr. Richard Milne (Wellcome Genome Campus/ Cambridge University): Digital Diagnostics, the Borders of the Clinic and the Ageing Body in Space.
- Dr. Alex Peine (University of Utrecht): The Co-constitution of Ageing and Technology
- Dr. Jonathan Wistow: (Durham University / FUSE): Local Health Inequalities and Ageing.

Moderator: Dr. Cynthia Meersohn Schmidt (University of York)