

One-Day Symposium on the Legacy of Margaret Archer – August 3rd
University of Warwick, MS.03 (Zeeman Building), 10am to 5pm

10:00 to 10:30	Welcome and introduction - Mark Carrigan and Sebastian Raza
10:30 to 12:00	Friends and collaborators panel In person: Ismael Al-Amoudi, William Outhwaite, Douglas Porpora, Sally Tomlinson Chair: Mark Carrigan
12:00 to 13:00	Reflecting on the Morphogenetic Approach Chair: Ismael Al-Amoudi Karim Knio - The Immanent Causality Morphogenetic Approach Juan David Parra - Archer's Morphogenesis and the Political Economy of Education Systems Krzysztof Wielecki - The presence of Margaret Scotford Archer in Polish sociology
13:00 to 14:00	Lunch
14:00 to 15:00	Reflecting on Reflexivity Chair: Sebastian Raza Lakshman Wimalasena - Reflexivity in Practice: Advancing the Working Experience through a Reflexive [Co-Design] Intervention Richard Remelie - Measuring reflexivity Ka Lok Yip - Archerian Realism and Phenomenology: Friends or Foes?
15:00 to 15:30	Coffee Break
15:30 to 16:10	Putting Social Realism To work Chair: Mark Carrigan Anzhela Popyk - Structure and Agency: Transnational and School Transitions of Ukrainian Forced Migrant Adolescents in Poland Catherine Hastings - Developing critical realist empirical research using Archer's explanatory framework
16:10 to 17:00	Open reflection session Chair: Mark Carrigan
17:00 to 18:00	Post conference drink (varsity pub)