

The Politics of (Non)Reproduction: Choice, Challenges, and Change

A one-day interdisciplinary event exploring the complexities of (non)reproduction.

2 September 2025

University of York, UK

Venue and Travel

University of York Campus East

Heslington

York

YO10 5GY

The event will take place in York's Ron Cooke Hub in the Lakeside room RCH/248X & 250 (double room).

Directions to the room

Zone 8 (Purple) - Ron Cooke Hub (Heslington East), 2nd Floor. Lakehouse. From the main entrance, take the main stairs to the 2nd floor. The room is through the door at the far end, on the right.

Accessibility Notes: This room is wheelchair accessible. This room has effective equipment including induction loops and microphones suitable for participants with hearing loss.

This is an accessible building with lifts to the upper floors. The venue also has accessible toilets, a café and a seating area.

Transport

Full information on travelling to the venue can be found here -

<https://www.york.ac.uk/about/transport-maps-parking/>