

Programme Grid 2026

Tuesday 8 September

11:30-13:25: Lunch at Habita

Rooms	Squires Annex LT	Squires Annex LT2	SAN 204	SAN 205	SAN 206	SAN 207	SAN 210	SAN 212	SAN 220	SAN 221
Streams	Special events	Special events	Mental Health	Inequalities	Health Care Organisations	STS and Medicine	Sexual and Reproductive Health	Experiences of health and illness	Critical Public Health	Open
Chair	Rebecca Olson Emma Craddock	Raquel Boso Perez Kirsten Morris	Sophie Mary	Bianca Vieira	Rose Watson	Chloe Phillips	Marie Larsson			Victoria Cluley
13:25-13:55	30 Years of Health: An Interdisciplinary Journal for the Social Study of Health, Illness and Medicine Christopher Till	Whose Knowledge Counts? (Re)locating Authority in Sexual and Reproductive Health Service Design Hannah Hall	Children and young people's moral landscapes of care: navigating multiagency involvement at the intersection of CAMHS and children's social care Hannah Gellman	Inequitably Harmed: Understanding Equity and Diversity in Patient Safety Josephine Ocloo	Teamwork and relational infrastructure: a qualitative study of modern UK general practice Francesca Dakin	Suffering-Capital: Recognition, Legitimacy, and Digital Illness Communities Harriet Fuest	'A floor, not a ceiling': Conceptualising epistemic infrastructures of reproductive governance in Argentina's post-legalisation abortion politics Lea Happ	Breast Cancer as A Social Illness: Lived Experiences of Patients and Their Caregivers In North India Shruti Pathak	Authoritarian Trauma as a Form of Oppression-based Social Trauma: Cross-Case Comparisons on How Systemic Repression Affects Communal Health Mandy Lee	My Home, My Garden Story: Curated atmospheres and class in the domestic garden when living with dementia David Dobson
Chair	Rebecca Olson Emma Craddock	Raquel Boso Perez Kirsten Morris	Tricia Okada	Ashok Patnaik	Rose Watson	Chloe Phillips	Marie Larsson			Victoria Cluley
14:00-14:30	30 Years of Health: An Interdisciplinary Journal for the Social Study of Health, Illness and Medicine Christopher Till	Whose Knowledge Counts? (Re)locating Authority in Sexual and Reproductive Health Service Design Hannah Hall	"Whose responsibility is it?!": speculative possibilities and actualised practices of care in LGBTQ+ suicide prevention. Hazel Marzetti	"Automating Inequality: AI as a Boundary Object and the Stratification of the Surgical Elite" Bianca Vieira	Initial explorations into complexities in the NHS counter fraud knowledge exchange Anu Watson	Rethinking Algorithmic Fairness in Healthcare: A Socio-Technical Perspective on Structural Inequalities Sumeyye Kara	The Digitalisation of Sexual and Reproductive Healthcare: Black Women's In/Exclusion of Prevention, Services and Care Shardia Briscoe-Palmer	Ethno-healthism, prostate cancer and benign prostate hyperplasia Genaro Castro-Vazquez	Methodological Innovation in Adolescent Research: Adapting the Storyline Approach to Explore Wellbeing Issues among Young Adolescents in Malawi Velia Manyonga	(Extra)capitalist plots? Gardening, health and capitalism Nick Fox

Chair	Rebecca Olson Emma Craddock	Raquel Boso Perez Kirsten Morris	Rebecca Simmons		Rose Watson	Chloe Phillips	Marie Larsson		Mandvi Mishra	Victoria Cluley
14:35-15:05	30 Years of Health: An Interdisciplinary Journal for the Social Study of Health, Illness and Medicine Christopher Till	Whose Knowledge Counts? (Re)locating Authority in Sexual and Reproductive Health Service Design Hannah Hall	Reimagining the biopsychosocial: Thinking otherwise about women's suicide in midlife Amy Chandler	Is Evidence-Based Practice Producing inequality in Health? A Narrative Review Per Koren Solvang	Living with Ill Health at Work: Symptom Management, Disclosure, and Organisational Control in the NHS Jennifer Remnant	Modelling in Action: Knowledge, uncertainty and expertise across science, policy and publics Emma Jay Nicholls	Medicalising the Debate: Discursive Framings, Epistemic Authority and Abortion Regulation in Belgium Aurelie Aromatario	Negotiating selfhood after cancer: intimacy, work and identity among breast and gynaecological cancer survivors in Hong Kong Pui Yan Flora Lau	Care in the time of crisis: an ethnographic account from the UK maternity frontline Tanvi Rai	Environmental Distress: Environmental Degradation from Climate Change and Green Initiatives in Norway Jocelyn Bell
Chair		Andy Northcot				Chloe Phillips	Raquel Boso Perez	Kriss Fearon	George Burrows	Victoria Cluley
15:10-15:40		Ethics and Ethnography Workshop Andy Northcot	Making meaning(s) of a diagnosis: Diagnostic framing, identity work, and anorexia identities. Lauren O'Connell	Living in and out of sync: embodying autistic temporality through everyday self-tracking Sherita Tam	Care as Governance: A Feminist Framework for Analysing Gendered Labour in Chinese Hospitals Jingyu Wei	The trade-offs of saving time on clinical documentation: on the sticky materiality of using ambient scribes in general practice Karolina Kuberska	Recovering and Building Trust in Contraceptive Care among Young People in Scotland Marie Larsson	mvukuzane, Nhuta: Cancer, Illness Metaphors and Culturally Responsive Health Communication among the Ndebele and Shona of Zimbabwe. Maxine Mpofo	Not never, just not yet: Exploring healthcare avoidance among LGBTQ+ people living with chronic illness Vickery Stamp	'You're always thinking ahead, you've got to with a garden': reimagining dementia and remaking futures through engagement with domestic gardens Christina Buse
Chair		Andy Northcot	Bianca Vieira			Chloe Phillips	Raquel Boso Perez	Kriss Fearon	Rebecca Simmons
15:45-16:15		Ethics and Ethnography Workshop Andy Northcot	Trauma in social life: toward a sociological theory of power and social change Baptiste Brossard	Feminist encounters: What happens when women want the same thing as the state? Alankrita Anand	Team Ethos: how team cultures are perceived, experienced and enacted in NHS mental health services Edward Freshwater	Patient flow and treatment pathways: logistics in A&E Joanna Sutton-Klein	Racial Disparities in Immediate Post-Mastectomy Breast Reconstruction among Black Women: A Systematic Review Remi Abi	Watch and Worry? Biographical disruption and biographical dialectics following a new diagnosed chronic haematological malignancy. Katie Montague-Hellen	Health inequalities and neoliberal epidemics: Back to 'causes of the causes' Ted Schrecker
Chair		Andy Northcot		George Burrows	Ashok Patnaik	Chloe Phillips	Raquel Boso Perez	Kriss Fearon

16:20-16:50		Ethics and Ethnography Workshop Andy Northcot	The storm it is rising but we'll hold back the wind" - reflections from socially-prescribed community activities Annabelle Edwards	Intersectional stigma and healthcare: what can we learn from trans sex workers? Mary Laing	Organising maternity care – a multileveled study of experiences Kristina Roset	Rethinking Technology Recommendation in living with dementia: A Practice Theory Approach Lijiaozi Cheng		Sightedness as a Contextual Symbol of the 'Normal': A study on Interactions between Blind and Sighted Individuals Ceylin Ozyurt	How Food Systems Shape Mental and Social Well-Being: Framing Food Production and Consumption Practices as Determinants of Health Altricia Dawson
17:00-18:00	Keynote: Reactionary health politics and medical sociology Anne Kerr, Professor of Science and Technology Studies Urban Studies and Social Policy School of Social and Political Sciences, University of Glasgow Room details: Squires Annex LT

18:00-19:00 – Poster Presentation and drinks reception sponsored by Wiley

Wednesday 9 September – Morning
08:00-09:30 Registration & Breakfast

Room	Squires Annex LT2	SAN 204	SAN 205	SAN 206	SAN 207	SAN 210	SAN 212	SAN 220
Streams	Special Events	Mental Health	Inequalities	Health Service Delivery	Pedagogy and methods	Sexual and Reproductive Healthcare	Experiences of health and illness	Patient - Professional Interaction
Chair	Gethin Rees		Victoria Cluley Kirsten Morris	Chloe Phillips		Raquel Boso Perez
09:00-09:30	New sociological research on healthcare in criminal justice settings Gethin Rees	Parental psychotropic medication use, risk and intensive parenting ideology: a critical discourse analysis Nora Louwagie	How does racism get 'under the skin'? Exploring the stories of Czech and Slovak Roma people living in England Lois Orton	Reassembling 'the Complex Patient': Narratives of Accessing and Coordinating Care in English General Practice Natassia Brenman		The promise of differentiation: a mapping of endometriosis symptoms across NICE guidelines and the messy non-linearity of making diagnosis Sahar Seidl	Navigating formal dementia care systems: classed and racialised intersections of cultural health capital in South Asian communities Kate Gibson

Chair	Gethin Rees		Victoria Cluley Kirsten Morris	Chloe Phillips	Tom Witney	Raquel Boso Perez		Emma Craddock
09:35-10:05	New sociological research on healthcare in criminal justice settings Gethin Rees	Narrating Resilience: Mental Health, Citizenship, and Coping Among Transpinay Migrants in Japan Tricia Okada	Porosity, Percolations and the Parasite: Thinking Relationally about Racial Inequalities in Multiple Long-Term Health Conditions Sujith Kumar Prankumar	Developing a remote support intervention to address biographical disruption resulting from Transient Ischaemic Attack (TIA) or minor stroke Diane Trusson	Reframing Resilience in Surgical Training: A sociological Study of Pedagogical practice Najoua Amelia Laajab	Lost and Found: The Clitoris, Medical Ignorance, and Feminist Resistance Sone Erikainen	Humour and Spectacle: The Social Construction of Weight Issues in News Media Posts on Weibo Yiying Ye	What counts as 'real' in healthcare interaction? Examining human/technology hybrid simulation interactions in communication skills training. Alison Pilnick
Chair	Gethin Rees		Victoria Cluley Kirsten Morris	Chloe Phillips	Tom Witney	Raquel Boso Perez		Emma Craddock
10:10-10:40	New sociological research on healthcare in criminal justice settings Gethin Rees	Invisible Burdens: Emotional Labour, Mental Load, and Women's Mental Health among Dual-Earner Couples in Pakistan Tipu Sultan	A racialised perspective on language interpretation provision in maternity services Sarah Akhtar Baz	Wicked problems and the recovery of meaning: critical systems thinking for injury care in low- and middle-income countries Lucia D'ambruoso	The enshitification of focus groups: how the web and AI enable 'imposter' participants Catherine Pope	Decision-making about birth in the UK: Insights from Birth Options Core Information Set development and implications for the sociology of childbirth Carol Kingdon	Navigating risk and uncertainty – young people's practices of health and illness Sophie Lewis	What we talk about when we talk about care: a meta-ethnography on the relationship between the families and professional carers of people with an intellectual disability Sophie Mary
Chair	Gethin Rees				Marie Larsson Tom Witney	Raquel Boso Perez
10:45-11:15	New sociological research on healthcare in criminal justice settings Gethin Rees	Instrumentalised Disability: Gendered Pathways to Life-Course Health Injustice in China's One-Child generation Jingxian Wang	"I felt like a cog in a machine": The Technocratic Model, and Black Women's Experiences of Racialised Judgements of Pain in Maternity Care Angela Loum	The collective work of optimising perinatal care Nicola Mackintosh	Crafting Collaboration: a resource to facilitate more effective, equitable, and sustainable collaboration in health research Oli Williams	Technologies of reassurance? Managing uncertainty and risk with expanded carrier screening Kriss Fearon	"It's a lifelong, ongoing evaluation of what works": Practicing Body Investments in the Everyday Life with Chronic Illness Ina Koch Roepke	Socially transgressive performances: a qualitative study of the influence of neoliberal frameworks on relational conflicts in domiciliary dementia care. Celia Bernstein

Chair	Gethin Rees				Marie Larsson	Raquel Boso Perez
11:20-11:50	New sociological research on healthcare in criminal justice settings Gethin Rees	Affective Inequality, Discrimination, and the Burden of Illness: A Medical Sociology Analysis of Caste and Mental Health among Dalit Students in Universities Dhaneswar Bhoi	Decolonising Medicine: What role will sociologists play? Brigit Mcwade	A qualitative study of perceived facilitators and barriers to implementation and adoption of a novel point of care genetic test in UK neonatal intensive care units. Amy Mathieson	Beyond the Verbal: A Visual-Verbal Dialogical Method for Exploring Embodied Reproductive Subjectivities in Urban China Hao Li	Understanding Women's Experiences of Hormone Fertility Testing Chanelle Scott	Neurological and Mental Illnesses Beyond Diagnosis: Medical and Social Impact, Stigmatization, and the Limits of Institutional Support Aristica-Roxana Milica (Paraluta)	What Clinics Overlook: Locating Relational Privacy in an Indian TB Hospital Mandvi Mishra
Chair	Gethin Rees		Bianca Vieira		Marie Larsson	Raquel Boso Perez	Tricia Okada
11:55-12:25	New sociological research on healthcare in criminal justice settings Gethin Rees	Transnational Hostile Ecosystem as a Determinant of Migrant Health: How do hostile language, policies, and attitudes shape migrant health and wellbeing in the UK? Erdem Dikici	Amplifying inequity: Understanding how general practice triage reshapes candidacy for patients with intersecting vulnerabilities. Elisabeth Yaneske	Breastmilk as medicine and the ethics of perinatal optimisation Julie Roberts	Developing a Transcultural Arts-Based Participatory Approach (TABPA) to explore the drivers of diabetes and hypertension in two contexts Maria Bissett	Resilience, Vulnerability, and Perinatal Outcomes: Findings from the Legacies and Futures Study Kate Luxion	Graphic medicine as knowledge translation: A reflection on developing a graphic novel on loneliness among newly-arrived migrant adolescents Sarah Devos	Risk or Regulation? Negotiating Post-Reproductive Women's Bodily Transitions and Clinical Decision Making around Hormone Replacement Therapy in India Shilpika Ghosh

12:30-14:00: Lunch at Habita

12:45-13:45: BSA Medical Sociology Group Annual General Meeting (TBC)

Wednesday 9 September – Afternoon

Room	Squires Annex LT	SAN 204	SAN 205	SAN 206	SAN 207	SAN 210	SAN 212	SAN 220	SAN 221
Streams	Special event	Emotion and Embodiment	Inequalities	Health Service Delivery	STS and Medicine	Sexual and Reproductive Health	Experiences of health and illness	Lifecourse	Health Policy
Chair	Janice McLaughlin	Victoria Cluley	Dhaneswar Bhoi	Marie Larsson		Natasha Noam Gol	Emma Craddock	George Burrows
14:00-14:30	Sociology of Health and Illness Journal FSHI	Mapping Entangled Bodies: A Body Mapping Study Investigating the Lives of Carers Living and Working with Long Covid Eilidh Anderson	Symbolic Violence and the Persistence of Geographic Inequalities in Deaths of Despair in England Timothy Price	How epistemic justice can improve care for people with co-existing substance use and mental health difficulties who present in crisis to emergency departments Tyler J Mills	Epistemological Pluralism within Healing Practices: A Sociological Enquiry of Traditional Shamanic Practices and Modern Medical science Rajkamal Chaube	Accessing healthcare for menstruation-related symptoms requires an inevitable breach of menstrual etiquette: implications for practice Sharon Dixon	Shifting boundaries of illness: fibromyalgia and the evolving landscape of legitimacy over time Adi Finkelstein	Menopause as a Transgender Phenomenon: conceptualising the experiences of bio- Others Rebecca Simmons	Governing loneliness across the life course: insights from policymakers Maaïke Paredis
Chair	Janice McLaughlin	Victoria Cluley	Dhaneswar Bhoi	Marie Larsson		Natasha Noam Gol	Emma Craddock
14:35-15:05	Sociology of Health and Illness Journal FSHI	Paradoxes of Involvement: Experiencing Institutionalised Ambivalence in Lived Experience Researcher Roles Bakita Kasadha	The Healthcare Entrapment Paradox: Structural Vulnerability and 'Trapped Agency' Among Female Sex Workers in Pakistan Sarosh Iqbal	Holding the line: Imagined futures of remote sexual and reproductive healthcare Tom Witney	Medical Sociology of Omission: The Production of Pharmaceutical Knowledge and Assessment Gowree Balendran	Citizenship, Marginalisation, and Women's Health: Lived Realities of Menstrual Health among Malayalam Tamil Plantation Communities in Sri Lanka Samanmali Alujjage Don	"Not endo enough"? Sense-making and identity where experiences differ from typical representations in endometriosis epistemic communities Rachel Dewar-Haggart	Elite sport as body work: exploring the conundrum of reproductive timing and fertility management in female athletes Christopher Elsey	Bringing the body back: A feminist, embodied, narrative framework for analysing lived effects of policy Rebecca Muir
Chair	Janice McLaughlin	Victoria Cluley	Dhaneswar Bhoi	Marie Larsson		Natasha Noam Gol	Emma Craddock
15:10-15:40	Sociology of Health and Illness Journal FSHI	Fostering connection and belonging in physiotherapy chronic pain care Miriam Dillon	Troubling Black-box Epidemiologies: applying intersectional theory to examining health inequalities in dementia care, practice and research Shadreck Mwale	Can "helping people to help themselves" lead to tackling health inequalities in primary care? Mihirini Sirisena	Re-politicize Health: Intersected Inequities in Health Knowledge Production and Application Manning Zhang	GLP-1s as Technologies of the Self: Narratives of Bodily Control and Realignment in People with PCOS Sabrina Keating	Telling tapering: patients' narratives on benzodiazepine cessation Melissa Ceuterick	Candidacy and long-term risk: women's perspectives on postnatal health and future cardiovascular risk after hypertensive disorders of pregnancy. Rosa Mackay	Pregnancy, power, and policy: a critical policy analysis of military health governance Kirsten Morris

15:40-16:00	Break
Chair		Victoria Cluley				Rose Watson
16:00-16:30		The weight of being heard: Racialised feelings, embodied emotion and patient safety in NHS organisations Olivia Joseph	Inequalities in health and eating behaviours during adolescence: a qualitative study in Spanish secondary schools. Raquel Vidal Blanco	Is elderspeak always inappropriate? Understanding more about the use of elderspeak in the care of people living with dementia. Lauren Bridgstock	The Pharmacological Body: Late-Stage Cancer, Medical Networks, and the Social Production of Normativity Elvin Saman	"Becoming Through Labour Pain: Embodiment, Docile Agency, and Reproductive Justice in Institutional Childbirth in New Delhi, India" Archita Tandon	The uncanny-not-yetness of post-exertional malaise (PEM): Pacing, temporality, and the long of Long Covid Emma Uprichard	(Re)defining "emerging studenthood": transition to university for students with long-term physical health conditions Melody Bishop	The bureaucratisation of compassion: An ethnographic analysis of understanding engagement and involvement of patients and families under the Patient Safety Incident Response Framework (PSIRF) Hannah Stoddart
Chair		Victoria Cluley				Rose Watson
16:35-17:05		Encountering the donor body: emotion, embodiment and professional socialisation in medical dissection Danya Stone	Situating coloniality as a determinant of immigrant health: Filipino experiences in Spain Simon Fern	Everyday relationality and the hidden work of interprofessional collaboration: Hospitalists enhancing the somatic care of psychiatric inpatients Atte Vieno	The Human Patch: Sustaining a Techno-Normative Health System in Chilean Public Cancer Care Grace Silva	"Toothache in the Leg": Painful metaphors and the Politics of Recognition in endometriosis online communities Natasha Noam Gol	Living with Sickle Cell Disease: lived experience, healthcare and inequality in young adults Lydia Okoibhole	Bridging dementia and migration: Exploring how South Asian people living with dementia participate in transnational social fields Ana-Maria Cirstea	Upstream Influence: Pharmaceutical lobbying in the UK political executive Emily Rickard
Chair		Victoria Cluley				Rose Watson
17:10-17:40		Care, resistance, and tinkering amidst suicidal unintelligibility: A somatechnics approach towards suicide by overdose	Chosen and Erased: The Institutional Reproduction of Biological Relatedness in Healthcare Systems in India	Structural Ableism in Dentistry Sasha Scambler	The Promissories of New Technology in Rare Cancer Care. Chloe Phillips	Barriers to equitable PCOS care: A Delphi study of healthcare professional perspectives Charlotte Cockman	Invisible navigators: migrant parents and the everyday labour of managing sickle cell disease in the UK Brenda Poku	Fathers and Neonatal Loss: Bereavement, Grief, and Masculinity Hayley Redman	Tradition for sale? Ayurveda and the Global Wellness industry in the context of the rise of Neoliberalism in India

		Ruth Chartoff	Shireen Yachu						Sharmistha Mallick
--	--	---------------	---------------	--	--	--	--	--	--------------------

18:45-19:30 Drinks reception

19:30-23:00 Conference dinner in Domain

Thursday 10 September – Morning

08:00-09:30 Breakfast

09:00-10:00	Keynote: The power of institutions and the mental health of racially minoritised people Dr Dharmi Kapadia, Senior Lecturer in Sociology and Director of the Centre on the Dynamics of Ethnicity (CoDE) The University of Manchester Room details: Squires Annex LT
-------------	---

Room	Squires Annex LT2	SAN 204	SAN 205	SAN 206	SAN 207	SAN 210	SAN 212	SAN 220	SAN 221
Streams	Theory	Mental health	Inequalities	Professions	STS and Medicine	Sexual and reproductive health	Experiences of Health and Illness	Diagnosis, screening and treatment	Open
Chair		Hazel Marzetti				Marie Larsson	George Burrows
10:10-10:40	Shadows of care: Penumbral heterotopias as affective-spatial alternatives to compassionomics Rita Oladimeji	Understanding adolescent mental health stigma in secondary schools: school staff perspectives from Flanders, Belgium Lies Saelens	Preference or pragmatism: an exploration of factors influencing women doctors' career decisions Joanne Lawrence	As long as we all just do what we are supposed to be doing." Institutional logics and the boundaries of professions and positions in end-of-life care. Elina Yrjola	Making sense of a 'complex disease': leading symptoms and reducing attribution in the multiplicity of endometriosis Chloe Schaer	"Swept under the carpet!" Let's talk about sex, relationships and having babies. Alexandra Kaley	It's a form of survival": Autistic transgender and nonbinary people's experiences of disordered eating Luka White	Between trivia and alertness: parents' experiences of their children being screened as 'unlikely to develop' type 1 diabetes Olga Boiko	Reconsidering happiness and wellbeing in palliative and advanced cancer care contexts Rebecca Olson

Chair		Hazel Marzetti		Mandvi Mishra		Marie Larsson			Bianca Vieira
10:45-11:15	The Psychosomatic Sovereign - A Multi-theoretical Analysis of the Fixation Over Body Politics of Contagion and Bodily Autonomy Enrico Mullings	The borderline to autism pipeline: Autistic women and gender diverse individuals experiences of borderline personality disorder (BPD) or emotionally unstable personality disorder (EUPD) misdiagnosis Eleanor White	Stigma, Silence, and Unseen Work: A Systematic Review of Cervical Cancer Stigma and the Invisible Labour of Women in South Asia Tanvi Mishra	"I don't understand why I'm not allowed to cry": Emotions, identity and the doctor-patient relationship in chronic illness David Tennison	Decision-making and informed consent in radiotherapy for gynaecological cancer: Epistemic harm and the case for 'trauma-informed' consent Hilary Jane Stewart	A feminist investigation of wellbeing in the lives of women with experience of sex work. Lorna Dowrick	Exploring information exchange in urgent primary care contacts with older patients and their companions in England: A conversation-analytic study Yicen Guo	Diagnosing diagnostic pathways in the emergency department: An ethnographic study of blood culture sampling practices informed by Translational Mobilisation Theory Deborah Bamber	Sharing qualitative health research data: the need for a paradigm shift? Fiona Stevenson
Chair		Hazel Marzetti			Aur�lie Aromatario
11:20-11:50	Therapeutic encounters with chatbots: towards a sociological approach to human-machine communication Benjamin Marent	An Uneven Shift Towards Lived/Living-Experience Inclusion: A Critical Policy Analysis of UK National Suicide Prevention Policies Thomas Wadsworth	Reducing bullying, harassment, and abuse towards ethnic minority NHS staff from other staff Ashok Patnaik	Reconfiguring Professional Identity: GP Perspectives on the Decline of GP Home Visiting in England Lucy Frost	Beyond Use: Egg Freezing and the Management of Reproductive Uncertainty Zhuoma Nancuo		Lived experience following myocardial infarction: A dialogical narrative analysis Jacqueline Hutchison	"We're kind of in a waiting room": Living with chronic and uncertain risk Matthew Randell	Navigating Queer Affirmative Practices in India: Experiences of Queer Affirmative Psychiatrists Daisy Zacharia
Chair		Hazel Marzetti			Aur�lie Aromatario			Rebecca Simmons	David Tennison
11:55-12:25	Agential Cuts and the Production of Disablement - What Barad Offers Medical Sociology's Approach to Institutional Harm Rebecca Jiggins	Guilt and shame amongst mentally unwell people involved in the justice system: Clinicians' perspectives on assessment and medicolegal practice Piyush Pushkar	Not "Clean Girls": Young Women's Intersectional Experiences of ADHD Identity Work and Femininity Construction on Social Media in the UK. Emma Gratte	Fostering teamwork for resilient staff and safe care in intensive care units (FEARLESS ICU): a multisite ethnographic study Shannon Costello	Contraceptive Complexity: Reconfiguring Contraception as a Doing Not a Thing, a Practice Not a Product. Cecily Klim		In/ter/dependence: Navigating Paradoxical Tensions in (Co) managing Type 1 Diabetes Carol Kelleher	(Mis)Managing Microbes: Understanding use of at-home vaginal microbiome test-kits through the lens of gyn-ecologies and leaky bodies Tori Ford	Healthcare workforce shortages in high-income countries: a systematic review of drivers, retention strategies and sociological implications Madhi Faraji
Chair		Hazel Marzetti

12:30-13:00	Applying Sociological Theory to the Redesign of Heart Failure Services within an Unequal Health System Jagroop Dhillon	Grieving Divergently: Experiences of grief and bereavement for neurodivergent children and young people Stephanie Mulrine		Birth Doulas and Boundary Work: Professions, Space and Knowledge Beverley Clough	Radiographers, Regulation, Disease, and Dose: A multipartite effect on obtaining a diagnostic radiograph Mark Widdowfield		Women, alcohol and their treatment: A new approach to 'biographical disruption' and readiness for treatment Chloe Beck		Negotiating diagnosis-related uncertainty in language- and cultural-discordant contexts: Practices, experiences, and meaning-making among Cantonese speakers in London Peace Chiu
-------------	---	--	--	---	--	--	---	--	--

13:00-14:00: Lunch at Habita